of Wall Street

BY GEORGE MIDDLETON BAYNE, No. 18 Broadway, New York City.

Copyright, 1910, by the New York EVENING TELE-GRAM (New York Herald Company), All rights reserved. Mr. Beverly Croxton, gentleman, stock broker and speculator, stood at the window of his private office on Wall street, tearing into bits fragments of stock at this more at the clock of old Trinity rang out two and three-quarters, and Mr. muttered:-"Nothing but a miracle could save me now. Fifteen minutes and I am bankrupt." There was a tap at his door. His stenographer catered and handed him a letter, which read

"My DEAR B.-I promised to do something when I could. I've made a hit, and send you half. Yours. C. C."

Enclosed was a cashler's draft for $50, 600-to the order of B. Croxton. He knew within his grasp temporary relief at least, future. Should he use the draft? He hesitated a moment, then indersed it, and with a quick, sharp touch tapped the bell, and in clear, decisive tones said to the boy answering his call, "Tell Mr. Johns this is an out of town remittance, and to de-

Presently old Trinity's spire rang off the three strokes, and Mr. Croxton put on his hat, bade his employes good night and left morning, and as the instrument began to click, he lighted a cigar, and without a tremor ran the tape leisurely through his Manitoba preferred, a stock of which his holdings were small, opened at

He resumed his place at the instrument, jam H. Headen, in the automobile busi- her first decisive success. Presently Albermarie. Toledo and Washington appeared again at 50%, and then 137, just fifteen points above closing prices. of an American girl who was accidentally have enjoyed them." Albermarie, Toledo and Washington was reeled off at 60, and close on its heels came Northern Van Couver at 250, the former 15 points and and the latter 130 points in advance of what he had purchased them. A rap at his door, and Mr. Johns rushed in. "Bedlam's loose, sirl A regular bear panie! Hortense & Co. and Coddington, Black & Co, have falled, and many reports about the Bed Rock Bank which cannot, however, be verified! The Street's wild, and no cause given for Click, click, click, rattled the little devil of a machine. Rushing to it, Mr. Johns called out, "Northern Van Couver, 273.

Why-why-what?" But Croxton heard no more; he was now at the telephone, calling Best & Co., his principal brokers.

This is Croxton-sell at once 1,000 Albermarle, Toledo and Washington, also the 1,900 of Northern Van Couver. And, hello, hello; hold the wire a moment." He turned to the cashler. 'Slanltoba preferred doing anything? Quick!" "One hundred and saventy-six," called out Mr. Johns. Croxton turned, put the transmitter to his lips, and said, "And, Mr. Best, lot Manitoba preferred also go

Then, dropping the receiver, he took the tape from Mr. Johns' hands. New Jersey Seaboard, Albermarie, Toledo and Washington, Manitoba preferred and Boston and Unadilla were still on the advance and Northern Van Couver was now 201. Everything in sight was going up wildly. It was a tidal wave, and there was a submarine sarthquake somewhere. It almost took his breath. He drawned the took his speculated with another was a submarine sarthquake somewhere. It almost took his breath. He drawned the tare was a submarine sarthquake somewhere. It almost took his speculated with another was a submarine sarthquake somewhere. It almost took his speculated with another was a submarine sarthquake somewhere was a submarine sarthquake somewhere. It almost took his speculated with another was a submarine sarthquake somewhere was a submarin parthquake somewhere. It almost took his breath. He dropped the tape and turned away in a semi-dazed condition.

There was a call at his telephone. It was Best. "I congratulate you. Albermarie, Toledo and Washington was sold at 50. About six months after the receipt of this game to-day. But it's an awful alaughter for those on the wrong side.

There was a call at his telephone. It was been here the receipt of the game to-day. But it's an awful alaughter for those on the wrong side.

"Did I do with it? Speculated." She bowed her head in her hands and was solded in her hands and was solded." "Do you think me a villain?" he asked to death by court martial here was solded in her hands and was solded." To you think me a villain?" he asked to demned to death by court martial here was solded in her hands and was solded." To you think me a villain?" he asked to demned to death by court martial here was solded in her hands and was solded. The hand heart hands and was solded in her hands and was solded in her hands and was solded. The hand heart hands and was

Laver. Kidney. Bladder Diseases. Constitution. Alcoholic Polisons.

Constitution. Alcoholic Polisons that in the looked at the envelope and noted that in the looked at the envelope and noted that it was addressed as the envelope containing the Pient behind the Disease. The Pient behind the Disease it was addressed as the envelope containing the First half had been addressed, to "E. Croxton, No. 2 Wall street, New York mail. Send for free Booklet. BUSAL CHEMICAL CO., 34 E. 20th st., New York that it was a matter of difficulty to determine whether it was Mr. or Miss, a peculiarity which he had falled to notice with the cther he smoothed her dishevelted hair and looked intertly into her eyes, now again filling with tears. She shrank from his touch and exclaimed in hurt and saddened tones. "On. Mr. Croxton, don't do that. Please let me go."

"Not until you know all," he replied, as the receipt of the draft, but which now "Not much to tell, but semesthing to do."

you supply your home table with good, PURE Beer.

and male. It is healthful and invigorating to the whole family. the cost than the chest

I'm that he a recessary consequence test materials and the most through and braining methods of brew-

Orde from Any Dealer.

poured only by the Bremera. DEALS TON & MOREZ, New York

BARY CARRIAGES. REEDALEATHER HOOD BABYCARRIAGES AGO: CARTS, ENGLISH

Prize for Story of Her Own Romance | Consumer for you." | Touched to the quick by her words, watch chain, and replied, "The money in the Trust Company, Mist Croxton, is earning three per cent, which amounts to fit the Trust Company, Mist Croxton, is earning three per cent, which amounts to fit the Trust Company, Mist Croxton, is earning three per cent, which amounts to fit the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So you see the hundred dollars a year, so you see the hundred dollars a year. So An Undercurrent Wins Prize for Story

MRS. MARIETTA C. HEADEN,

Conditions of Short Story Prize Competition.

FIFTY DOLLARS IN GOLD will be awarded each week to the writer

The story may be fiction, light or grace, humorous or sad, or it may be a

Address all stories to the Short Story Price Editor, the EVENING

The contest opens on Monday and closes on Thursday of each week. On

"Nothing, except to let me have a cheek received that note and I never received the $50,000, received a certificate of deposit "You, Mr. Croxton?" she asked, the tones

ing and initials were the same as those with the other he smoothed her dishevelled

He turned uneasily in his chair, and took from it a paper and, returning to her aid, "Well, but I don't understand."

"Oh! Mr. Croxton," the girl exclaimed, it, but it conveyed no meaning to her.

the world; but he must be in some desper- "Only a bit of paper, but it means much ate strait to ask me for money. I have to us both. The day after I misappropri-not a hundred dollars in the world, though ated your money I was able to return it. he seems to think I have, for he speaks of so I placed it in the Trust Company and

"he's my brother, and one of the best in "What is it, Mr. Croxton?"

cashed at once. Mr. Johns, and wire the gulity of embezzlement," and with the words he went to the safe, side, placed it in her hand. She looked at when I received it, but I knew it did not

PROPRIETARY.

whose story is adjudged the best of those submitted during the week. For all stories which may not be awarded a prize, but which may be adjudged good enough to publish, the BVENING TELEGRAM will pay exces rates.

Manuscripts unaccompanied by stamps cannot be returned.

Saturday the names of the prize winners are announced.

The contest, which is free to all, is open now.

Seneca Trust Company and, depositing for I also took that."

The general conditions of the competition are these:-

Northern Van Couver, in which he was The narrative, which is marked for its had won the 50 in gold. "I have read more largely interested than any other, at excellent local color of Old Mexico, tells every story printed in this contest, and nerrative of an actual experience.

The story must not exceed 2,500 words.

Write upon one side of the paper only.

TELEGRAM, Herald Square, New York city.

he first thing in the morning for one money."

on the receipt of the draft, but which now

"What is your brother's name?" he

Mr. Creaton, but I don't understand,"

Her employer was silent for a mon thought how strange it was that whe entity of her name with his own, he had had engaged this girl and noticed the in any way attoriated her with the asked, in the same quiet tones.

l'alls, Wyeming."

naturally attracted his atttention.

hundred thousand."

ton and Unadilla was up seven peints.

Croxton dropped the tape, went to the door, and said:—"Mr. Johns, something unusual is going on in the Street. See own romance, and her husband, Mr. Will-what it is."

He resumed his place at the instrument.

Northern Van Couver, in which he was The narrative, which is marked for its pleased," she said, when informed that she to her eyebrows.

"It goes without saying that I am ditions, and I at least have not one word of Hard for Mrs. Gregory.'

Physician's Aid.

pendent. But you can do better. It should pay you at least two thousand, or twentyfive hundred, and you must make it do so-I advise that you get at once some trustworthy friend to invest it for you. "But, Mr. Croxton, I know of no one COLLAPSE CREATES STIR IN more trustworthy than you, even if I were disposed to seek one, which I am not. I have no men friends in this city. Is it a liberty, Mr. Croxton, to let it remain in your hands?" "Oh, that will never do," he exclaimed. You must get some conservative per son; or better still, the Title Company will attend to it for you. Yes, so to th Title Company. I am a speculator, and it will never do for me to touch that oney again. And there is one thing more, Miss Croxton, now that you are independent. I can no longer expect to J. Walsh was examining a witness this and held her in $300 bail for examina. nothing available to meet it but the expr. of course, you would not care to re-

"Am I discharged, Mr. Croxton?" "Discharged? Certainly not."
"Then I shall remain," she replied stead

"But why, bless my and, Miss Crox-ton, don't you see that that is quite impossible? It would never do. You will, of course, leave at the end of the week." She gasped, clutched at the desk for supciusko street, when she swooned. "I understand I am discharged," she murmured, with a choking sensation in her

This Week's Fifty Dollar Gold Award by Evening Telegram Won by Mrs. Headen, advance of closing prices the day before, and Southern Patapasco opened at 10%, three and a half points in advance of closing prices.

The ticker was inactive for a minute or two, and then, click, click, it rattled off Albernarie, Toledo and Washington, a stock in which he was largely interested, at 5% five and a quarter points in advance of closing prices.

Who Was Herself Heroine.

Searching Questions.

Improper, to tell my stenographer?

If her cheeks flushed a rosy hue, and with jours on out he stand had corrobout two much as a word in reply she has been given what had hap the outs on which has been given what had hap the outsom which has been given what had hap the outsom which has been given which has been given what had corrobout two much as a word in reply she has been given which has been given which has been given what had corrobout two much as a word in reply she has been given what had corrobout two much as a word in reply she has been given which has been

"I shall go, Mr. Croxton, at the end of lowed to leave the stand, and her agitation the week," she replied, a blush mantling led to her fainting.

"Oh! that's as it should be. It saves Accuses Detectives. me from a disagreeable duty-that of discharging you." he said as he looked at her tenderly. The girl dropped her eyes. The afternoon sunlight flooded the room vestigation of an affidavit made by Herman and the ticking of the clock was distinctly Hoffman, of No. 825 Stanton street, in

HE SINGS SONGS

IN TEN TONGUES

Popular selections of ten stories of the Tower of Babel were sung in the Reformed Church Sunday school of Lodi, N. J., by Senator John D. Prince, formerly a professor of Special Sessions in the Reformed Church Sunday school of Lodi, N. J., by Senator John D. Prince, formerly a professor of Special Sessions in the alleged police were doing in the alleged police.

Twelve men wonth a streets others injured.

The detectives made him a prisoner charged with assaulting them and he will be arraigned for trial in the Court of Special Sessions Monday.

Having read in the newspapers what Mayor Gaynor and the Commissioner of Police were doing in the alleged police. formerly a professor of languages in Co-

He had for his audience men and women of many races, most of them employes of it reached headquarters to-day and the the mills and factories of Paterson. Every Commissioner made it public melody found a living home and welcome somewhere in the assemblage, except the appear at headquarters within the next national sir of the Pueblo Indiana. As two days to answer Hoffman's charges, this was performed with one singer on the the Commissioner said. piano, accompanied by beating one foot Detectives' Defence. on the floor, leaving the other limbs entirely free, the audience was amazed by Lander declares that he and Horton The next morning he hurried to the took it; and you never received the money, its symmastic interest beyond the possihad a warrant when Hoffman began to "trail" them. Told they were detectives and voluntarily showing badges, Lan-der avers that Hoffman snatched Hor-

NOT JAN POUREN,

Man Condemped to Beath at Riga I Jan Poured.

ton's shield, whereupon the two clinched and dropped to the ground. Lander de-Riga, Russia, Saturday.-The man condemned to death by court martial here was

Jan Poured, an alleged murderer, and not Jan Pouren, the revolutionist who escaped to the United States several years ago, as was at first reported.

"Horion called out to me, 'Lander, you had better hit him.' I struck Hoffman with my blackjack and he stopped fighting. A Bellevue ambulance surgeon examined him and fixed up the place where I hit him."

to Kill Priest.

TRENTON, N. J., Saturday. - Giovanni firms connected with the Hocking Coal Maroni, a Mercer county murderer, early and Iron scandal will not be taken by having sent me some; but I never got it, took out this certificate of deposit in the to-day wrecked the death house at the the Stock-Exchange until February 2. for your want me to savance this sum prove to be, and it has been drawing interfor your he asked quietly.

"If you will, Mr. Croxton, I'll work on half salary until every dollar is returned."

Croxton, and the certificate of deposit is took fifteen men to subdue him. Dallas Shortly after the market closed, Presiname of "B. Croxton," whoever that might State Prison, assaulted two deputy keep. Such was the announcement made to-day yours, and it eases my conscience a little Forg and Frederick Douglas, the keepers, dent R. H. Thomas issued the following

He took up his private check book and belong to me. It was in my name, how. killing a woman here who refused to give port upon the matter of the fallure of drawing a check for one thousand dollars, ever, and I was about to fail: It offered a him employment. He has given up hope Lathrop, Haskins & Co., and the cirrang for his cashier, and said: "Wet this chance of escape and I used it, and I was of getting his sentence commuted to life cumstances surrounding it, and the gov-The girl twirled and twisted mechan- imprisonment and has been despondent for erning committee in accordance with the Thousand, Mr. Croxten? I said"— He featly the paper in her hands, as if still several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined, "to Charles Croxton, Esq. Little Palls, Wyoming."

The girl twirled and twisted mechantered as a featly several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined, "to Charles Croxton, Esq. Little Palls, Wyoming."

The girl twirled and twisted mechantered as a featly several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined, "to Charles Croxton, Esq. Little Palls, Wyoming."

The girl twirled and twisted mechantered as a featly several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined, "to Charles Croxton, Esq. Little Palls, Wyoming."

The girl twirled and twisted mechantered as a featly several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined, "to Charles Croxton, Esq. Little Palls, Wyoming."

The girl twirled and twisted mechantered as a featly several days. He is a giant in strength constitution of the Exchange, which proteined and decided to fight his way out of the vides for ten days notice in the case of fushed and paled by turns, then letting the death house, daring death for liberty. He hearings, has set February 2 as the day upon which action will be had."

Only One "BROMO QUININE," that is Maroni succeeded in getting out of his the Stock Exchange, the news was sent cell. He smashed every article he could out carly to-day that an announcement Shative promo Chilling Coll. He smashed every article he could out carry to-day that an announcement Wit you understand now," he centin. Oures a Coldin One Day, Grip in 2 Days demned murderers from their cells when Stock Exchange.

Policoman Assalls Her Tee Arrest, Accusing Her of Deserting Him.

Because she ran away from her hus UNABLE TO MEET A band and threatened to shoot herself. HEADQUARTERS TRIAL ROOM; ber husband and another man, Lydia McCartney, the sixteen-year-old wife of James J. McCartney, of No. 1,251 Park Foreclosure Follows and All She Has Commissioner Gets New Clubbing avenue, was arrested and brought be-Charge from Man Who Needed fore Magistrate Breen in the West Side Court to-day. The Magistrate on hearing her husband's statements ordered that a complaint be made against her While Deputy Police Commissioner John for associating with disorderly persons beating Oscar Gregory, the latter's wife, was twenty-five years old and had of No. 156 East Twenty-second street, first Mrs. Nellie Gregory, fainted away in the married Lydia nine months ago. Three Brooklyn headquarters trial room.

She had become greatly agitated by the him and he lost sight of her. One day noon.

Questions previously put to her by James some one told him where she was, and taking up the trail he found she had.

When Mrs. Lyon's husband diet eight W. Ridgway, counsel for Devon. They gone to Providence, R. I., for three at Seventy-second street and Park are port, and arose, every vestige of color hav-life. Mrs. Gregory had taken a seat be-ing left her cheeks, and without a word side her husband and was listening to the started to leave the room.

Taking Lydia by surprise the following testimony of Emil Jaecke, of No. 283 Kos-day, he induced her to go back home with him, promising to forgive her everything.

"You derstand, and discharged," she murmured, with a choking sensation in her throat.

"Well, discharged, if you will have it that way, but simply because—oh, hang it, Miss Croxton, why won't you understand that I want to wisit you at your own home and talk to you of something else than stocks and quotations and business letters? Don't you see, what I want to know you see, that I want to know you socially, and to tell you, if I may, what is quite improser, to tell my stenographer?"

I dereched in the swooned.

The woman's swoon caused a commedion in the swooned.

The woman's swoon caused a commedion in the swooned.

The woman's swoon caused a commedion in the other man was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and she gaged her husband to take her to him was going to Norfolk, Va., and to he other man was going to Norfolk, Va., and to he other man was going to Norfolk, Va., and to he other man was going to Norfolk, Va., and to he other man was going to Norfolk, Va., a

"Were you ever arrested with two other BIG BUILDING COLLAPSES: These questions seemed to rankle in Mrs. Gregory's mind after she was al-TWELVE KILLED, SCORE HURT Magtatrate Herrman Diamisses Cam

Belgian Workmen Crushed Under Ruins of Structure Whose Foundations Give Way,

While this investigation was in progress building in the course of construction near a charge of shoplifting, was discharged by the visduct, and the foundations of which Magistrate Herrman in the Jefferson Man. audible, but the silence was otherwise unbroken until Miss Croxton arose from her seat and stole quietly away, taking her notebook with her.

Hoffman accuses Detectives Charles day, burying the workmen in the ruins of the charge by the department stera the blackjacking him on the night of Denotebook with her.

Hoffman accuses Detectives Charles day, burying the workmen in the ruins of the charge by the department stera the blackjacking him on the night of Denotebook with her.

Hoffman accuses Detectives Charles day, burying the workmen in the ruins of the charge by the department stera the blackjacking him on the night of Denotebook with her.

Hoffman accuses Detectives Charles day, burying the workmen in the ruins of the charge by the department stera the blackjacking him on the night of Denotebook with her.

NEWSPAPERS.

BROADWAY SEES OWES $503,246, ARMED GIRL WIFE HER ONLY ASSETS & FIGHT HUSBAND NOVEL COPYRIGHT

band Left Her the Hotel Lorenz. Files Bankruptcy Petition.

SECOND MORTGAGE

Left Is Copyright on "Prudence Pratt."

With liabilities of more than 1500,00 and right on a novel called "Prudence Platt" James Devon, the policeman charged with McCartney told the Court that he Mrs. Anna E. Lyon, widow of Dore Lyon, port, and arose, every vestige of color hav- life. Mrs. Gregory had taken a seat be he saw the man and learned from him nue, worth then more than $70.00 min a

WAGE INCREASE, REPORT

Indications Are That Negotiations Between Trainmen and Officials Will Be Abruptly Terminated.

NEW HAVES, Conn., Saturday .- Indiestions this afternoon were the negotiaties her sent away to a home for three months between the railroad men's committee and the officers of the New Haven system

There were no conferences to-day but it other good tale of this adventurous and is understood that the committee has hid a flat refusal to grant the demands for wage increases.

MRS. WOLF IS DISCHARGED.

Ita Charge.

Mrs. Emille Wolf, forty-two years cid. of No. 101 East 179th street, who was ar-CHARLEROY, Belgium, Saturday .- A large rested in a Broadway department store on

NEWSPAPERS.

Men Who Kill Your Faith in Human Nature

Wolves Who Capitalize the Spirit of Sympathy, Take Your Alms and, While Outwardly Grateful, Inwardly Laugh at You and Sneer at Your Pity.

Mr. Felix Isman: A Tale of Two Cities The most Industrious Commuter Between New York and Philadelphia Talks of Minting the Logic of Business Into Dollars.

Rare Antiquities in Wonder Houses of Paris

Fine Structures Built or Remodelled by Art Firms of Interna-

"Miss Bentleigh, Professional Shopper" A New Idea in Stories by Miss Rita Welman, Who Retells Tales Told to Her by a Young Woman in a Novel Walk of Life.

"Muzzle to Muzzle" One More True Story of an American Duel That Had Romance and a Tragedy for its Motive and Conclusion.

The Story of the Criminologist The Master Rogue Has a Heart to Heart Chat with His Friend Laxton and Once More Reveals His Cunning.

Insurance Companies Bar Gamblers Some Inside Lights on the Workings of the Perfect Secret Service Maintained by the Writers of Policies.

Indoor Instruction on Hurdles Young Girls Being Prepared for Their Work in the Huntles Field Next Season.

The Son-of-Fury-Born-of-a-Turtle's-Egg Another Very Interesting and Thrilling China Sea Story by

Wide Awake Skibby Wins by

Taking a Nap This is the Boy You Like-He Ans Once More Demonstrated

Silk and Satin Theatre Gowns The Latest Paris Fashions, Illustrated with Striking Photographs.

"The Three Dreams" A Good Story for the Youngsters from the Hungarian of Louise Souvan.

The Sunday New York Herald

ask you, but am in sore need, and am sure! He got up from his seat and walked ask you, but am in sore need, and am sure He got up from his seat and walked you have it to spare out of what I sent toward the window. As he did so the girl you. Act at once, or it will be too late, arose and started to retire. At the sound Yours, "C. C." of the swish of her skirts he turned and intercepted her. Taking her by one hand, FIGHTS EIGHTEEN

Giant, Near to Chair, Knocks Stock Exchange Announces It Keepers Insensible and Tries

Maroni is under sentence of death for The sub committee to-day made a reand broke into tears. Presently Mr. Crox. Ico, now that my brother's wants are more pipe and secreted it in his cell. ton look from his deak the letter which than supplied, and if it is of the slightest. An Italian priest from New Brunswick Co. alone is mentioned in this statehad broug t the draft, and said. 'Is that possible use to you, I won't take it. Nor was visiting another inmate in the death ment. It is understood that action will our brother's writing?"

Will I touch a dollar of, if you persist in house when Maroni began his fight. The salidade with also be taken on the other two firms which calling yourself an embezzler. You did not, you could not know, that the money also be surprised if you did. But belonged to me, nor even not to you. I belonged to me, nor even not to you have to death to will be also be taken on the also be taken on the lower to will be to will be ever valle me anything but 'B." and his many would have done unter similar con-wrapen at the priest, who leaped back acted as the manager of the Hocking ward in time to lessen the force of the pool. blow. The priest fled from the death As evidence of the changing sentiment

G. It. Cross box 250 dued the crazed man after a terrific witnesses were examined by the commitclubbing cases. Hoffman went to see the Mayor yesterday, and was instructed to prepare an affidavit relating his experience and send it to Commissioner Baker.

The detectives will be summoned to were "trailing" a man for whom they Will Hear Lathrop, Haskins & Co. on That Date.

Definite action with reference to the regarding public opinion by the olicials of

He was trying to free the other con- atten would be made at one o'clock by the a gang of deputies who had been sum- The hearings with reference to the man-moned by the priest rushed in and sub-spulation are still under way and many ed, after a moment's hesitation, No. Mr. Creaton, I do not, I know that to be my brother's writing, and that! must be to what he refers, but I never